v.	)	Case No. CR-18-227-SLP

JOSEPH MALDONADO-PASSAGE,	)
	)
Defendant.	)

ORDER

Before the Court is the Motion for New Trial [Doc. No. 215] filed by Defendant Joseph Maldonado-Passage. The Motion for New Trial states that “Defendant incorporates and adopts all factual and legal arguments herein from Defendant’s Motion for New Trial attached as Exhibit 1 to Defendant’s Second Motion for Leave to File an Oversized Brief [DE 214].” Mot. 5. The Court will not permit Defendant to incorporate by reference—without leave of court—approximately 200 pages of briefing filed as an attachment to a separate request for excess pages. See Doc. No. 214-1. This approach attempts to circumvent the Court’s rules regarding page limitations and the February 10, 2022 Order of this Court [Doc. No. 213] denying Defendant’s previous request to file an oversized brief. See Chaib v. Ashcroft, 397 F.3d 1273, 1276 (10th Cir. 2005) (“courts generally disfavor incorporation by reference because doing so allows practitioners to circumvent page limitations and complicates the judge’s responsibilities” (citing Gaines–Tabb v. ICI Explosives, USA, Inc., 160 F.3d 613, 624 (10th Cir. 1998))).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant's Motion for New Trial [Doc. No. 215] is STRICKEN.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 16th day of February, 2022.
